THURSDAY MORNING MARCH [illegible] 1863

The News

Our readers will need no comments upon the news published yesterday We acknowledge that we hoped for something more encouraging from Vicksburg, and were anticipating more favorable intelligence in some other directions But we are glad to notice symptoms of a better state of feeling in the Northern States, where recently there has been far more open and avowed sympathy with secession than was consistent with national honor or prosperity In New Jersey, especially, though the Legislature has lately elected a confessed and acknowledged rebel to the U S Senate, and had pending before it resolutions of the most seditious type, there was sufficient conservative and patriotic reaction before it adjourned to defeat their passage The Western States, particularly Illinois and Indiana, have checked the rising tide of disorder and disunion and now exhibit an encouraging degree of the true loyalty, which made them shine so proudly while the dying words of Douglas were lingering in their ears We trust the imminent dangers which have threatened the country since the beginning of the year, have nearly passed by, and that the effect of this fearful crisis—far more fearful and desperate than was generally supposed—will be beneficial both to the Government and the people who have staggered in their fidelity. The former will be aroused to more earnest, anxious and efficient action, the latter will feel more confidence and hope, stronger faith in the power of the Union, and will determine that no Administration shall ever be allowed to make a peace which can only bring blasting and mildew upon all our prosperity—shame and everlasting contempt upon our boasted institutions of freedom and intelligence

Pacific City come again —The San Francisco papers have discovered a new town site, or rather are trying to galvanize an old one into new life. The immaculate Dr White is its god father and accoucher, and Pacific City which we recollect to have read of once, is its name It is located no where, and where nobody goes unless driven there by stress of weather When the road to Shoalwater Bay becomes popular and is generally traveled, it is barely possible that the business of the city may support a whisky shop, but never anything else It is a humbug--long ago dead and exploded, but the dead cinders are just the material for Dr White to exercise his weak and lying suavity upon They say he has got up a company with $1,100 000, which will shortly send one hundred families, on board the steamship Herman, to take possession of the promised land All right—they will be Oregonians in three days or as soon as they can cross the Bay, and then there will be room for others who wish to follow their example

Good News from the Mines —Parties just in from the Auburn report no more than eighteen inches of snow at Auburn during the winter, with a like depth in Grand Ronde valley On the Blue mountains it is from five to seven feet deep The trail for pack animals is in good condition, but impassable for teams Times were very dull in Auburn—Flour, $18 and $20 per cwt ; Bacon, 60 and 70 cents per pound and other articles in proportion The news from Boise continued good The Powder River Ditch was being pushed forward vigorously—it being the intention to have it completed in time for early spring operations They report meeting many on their way to Boise via Auburn

Good Riddance —The Washington Star says that among the 450 passengers who took their departure for Richmond recently, were 70 females whose morality was not of that quality to command respect, and that they could be very well spared from the National Capital.

Liberal Discount —Death has discounted about fifty thousand dollars in Lancaster Co Penn,—the death of an old miser farmer, Abraham Hersey, who had stored away in old bags and boxes that amount of gold and silver. He died at a good time for his heirs

Charitable Cargo —The cargo of the ship George Griswold—the gift of America to the starving English operatives—was 12 736 barrels of flour, 400 boxes of bacon, 100 barrels pork, 500 bushels corn 500 barrels and boxes bread

What becomes of them ?—There were coined at the mint in Philadelphia during December last five million four hundred and thirty thousand cents and yet the cry is for more, Where do they go to ?

Railway Subscriptions —The Alta says that a Committee in Marysville is at work raising the necessary subscriptions for the survey of a railway to Oregon

Smart King —The fugitive king of Greece begged over a million of dollars before he left his kingdom and has the money safe in English three per cents

Letter from Auburn.

FROM OUR REGULAR [illegible] CORRESPONDENT

Auburn, February 1st 1[illegible]

[illegible] about [illegible] as measured by a gentleman whose engineering mind has [illegible] men are every fresh [illegible] hat amount has be[illegible] but my [illegible] was [illegible] three feet [illegible] we will [illegible] this w[illegible]

[illegible] any business [illegible] the Boise [illegible] Powder river valley [illegible] us in [illegible] mountain thirty m[illegible] impossible except [illegible] least four hundred [illegible] and all animals at [illegible] night [illegible] Ronde tells me the present [illegible] valley [illegible] hat there are [illegible] here for permanent settlement [illegible] Boise as that valley is still principally [illegible] from snow and stock [illegible] Grand Ronde is a favorite spot in the winter time as regards snow last winter there was none in the greater part of the valley and the same is true now At [illegible] Grande where the old road comes down [illegible] from the Blue mountains there is a [illegible] ground [illegible] the stock from [illegible] Powder river valley has been sent there to winter and are doing well

I hear of two men who were badly frozen at Boise and will probably lose their feet It is a miracle that more do not suffer

Winter sports at Auburn are well suited to that portion of our population who come from the northern countries of Europe The Norwegians go about in their snow shoes and perform feats upon them that attract the attention of all the idlers (and there are few others) of the town I have seen them climb the ridge above the town so steep they had to circle the hill to ascend it, and [illegible] down on their snow shoes with a velocity unsafe for any but the most experienced directly through the streets of the town The shoes are strips of board say, three or four inches wide and some six feet long, made to turn up at the ends Mounting these a Norwegian travels anywhere over the country gliding down the hills like an arrow shot from a bow One of them was not so fortunate as the other when I saw them and when on the steepest descent of the hill he struck a log and was thrown headlong scattering the light snow in every direction as he plowed through it but receiving no injury

It is a great amusement for a crowd to watch the efforts of less adventurous ones who try themselves on snow shoes on the lower part of the hill, and between the prospect holes and other obstructions meet with frequent falls much to the amusement of the bystanders who always applaud that part of the performance

Then, we have sleigh rides in Auburn and the boys are forever sliding down hill in the old fashioned way

The latest touch of civilization is the dancing school, where the gay men whose wives are safe at home resort to learn the fancy dances, that they may practice their mazes with the belles of Auburn, as they will have frequent occasion to do if the "gay season" lasts long Of course there are young men to be found there but the society of Auburn is in great part composed of Boise widowers and gentlemen whose wives are to be sent for another summer

But while being descriptive I must not confine myself entirely to the gayeties of Auburn life, but must as well do justice to the church goers, who have now a convenient place of worship in a new hall near here, which accommodates some two hundred persons and is crowded every Sabbath day

Provisions are tolerably abundant here at present, and the markets are supplied with good beef at from 10 to 15 cents per pound There is any quantity of liquors on hand and I think we must have a considerable to spare for the use of Boise mines I have lately seen Mr Joseph Labaree, from Jackson Diggings in Southern Oregon a brother to one of the men murdered here by the Mexican last November He says that the notices of the affray he has seen declare these men to have been killed over a game of poker which was not the case and in justice to the feelings of the friends of Desmond and Labaree, the men who were murdered I will say, that their friends claim them to have been men who drank to excess or gambled Being challenged to a game of poker he offered to bet a dime which he showed When it appeared that the Mexican had no money at all they sneered at him for his challenging men to play when he had no money Their contemptuous manner exasperated the greasers, who ultimately stabbed them both The two murdered men were intimate friends and had been partners in mining for many years I wrote a circumstantial correct account of the whole affair and its last tragic termination which I think must have miscarried from the fact that the man whose letter was published had the run of the express office Mr Labaree expects to commence mining in the Spring up in the head waters of Grand Ronde river He tells me of a friend who prospected there all last Fall and found a gulch where there are confident of making an ounce per day to the hand The inducement is at least so good that they are able to resist the Boise excitement There were only a few men working on Grand Ronde river last Fall and they discovered these diggings late in the season though they secured some gold from their claims which having been assayed is said to yield $18 per ounce

The weather is cold here now, and the expresses make very slow time in consequence of the almost impassable state of the roads from snow but pack trains still arrive and still leave bound for Boise To morrow the U S mail leaves and I forward this by R[illegible] fellow who thinks of doing the work and taking Uncle Sam for pay I suppose you are aware that we have a postmaster appointed,

On It —Printers are said to be sound on the fighting question The army is filled with them—many papers east having suspended for the want of printers to "get the paper out " From the Philadelphia Typographical Union 60 members have gone to the wars from the New York Union 71 from the Rochester Union 77 from the Chicago Union 57 from the Detroit Union 2[illegible] and large numbers from all the cities in the Union Several companies in California have been officered entirely by printers

Coal Mines in Michigan —Professor Winchell State Geologist of Michigan reports that the whole central area of that State embracing one hundred and eighty seven townships or six thousand seven hundred square miles is underlaid by coal seams ranging in thickness from three to five feet Mines have been opened in several places

The Legislature of Connecticut has passed a bill exempting soldiers bounty from attachment

Further News —Halifax Feb 21 The steamer Canada with [illegible] from Liverpool [illegible] the [illegible] to the 5th has arrived [illegible] Lancashire operatives sent [illegible] Mass[illegible] Committees

The Polish [illegible] was strangled [illegible] Wenzel [illegible] by the Russians [illegible]

The Queen's [illegible] speech contains very little of importance except the following

Her Majesty [illegible] the North American States [illegible] Her Majesty [illegible] the desolating war [illegible] the sufferings [illegible] and she has witnessed [illegible] the fortitude [illegible] the severe distress [illegible] suffering which the war has inflicted [illegible] large [illegible] her subjects [illegible] exemplary [illegible] It [illegible] her Majesty [illegible] and distress [illegible] neutrality [illegible]

[illegible] an insurrection [illegible] in Cochin [illegible] a desperate attack by the French [illegible] Severe fighting had taken place [illegible] the Cochin Chinese were repulsed with heavy loss

Portland February 25 —The steamer Jura with dates from Liverpool to the 12th and from Londonderry to the 13th has arrived

The London Times repudiates Mr [illegible] banquet saying that he was much too fast Mason at this banquet had predicted the speedy formation of friendly relations between the British and rebel governments

The Times reiterates its belief that the rising of the Poles is a thoroughly national affair headed by the Catholic priests It is said that the insurgents appear to be increasing, keeping hold on whole provinces of the country

The Sumter has left Gibraltar for a destination unknown

The reply of President Lincoln to the Manchester address is published It deplores the sufferings occasioned by the cotton famine, rejoices that the efforts to create a sympathy for the secessionists fail, eulogises the utterances of the Manchester meeting as sublime heroism, and expresses an earnest desire for perpetual peace between the two nations A great meeting held at Bolton expressed warm sympathy for the North

The ship George Griswold with food for the Lancashire sufferers, arrived at Liverpool on the 9th On entering the Mersey she was received with a salute of cannon from the fort and dipping of colors A public demonstration had taken place

The Paris Moniteur, in noticing the correspondence in the intercepted Confederate dispatches, says that the so called consul of France in Texas was not even a paid consular agent of France at Galveston He acted as a kind of deputy to the Consul at New Orleans. The only instructions he received from France were to maintain the greatest reserve and carefully abstain from every kind of political interference in the affairs of the country The Frenchman alluded to at Richmond was simply the chancellor to the consulate of France,

In the French Corps Legislatif, paragraphs in the address to the Emperor relative to Mexico America and Italy were passed, but the opposition strongly denounced the Mexican war and the continued occupation of Rome. La France points out that the French found in the forts at Acapulco Mexico, arms from American sources

Grain Trade in Chicago —During the last year there have been received at Chicago of flour and grain of all kinds equal to 58 610 194 bushels, and an increase of over 4 500 000 from the year preceding This increase is in the face of a very material falling off in the wheat crop of 1861 and a consequent heavy decline in the receipts since the river opened [illegible] compared with last year. Much of the grain which has hitherto been sent to Southern cities, was last year directed to Chicago, which has made business very lively there

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

Legal Tender Notes this Day—52 cents.

SEIZURE.—We learn that the U. S. Marshal has seized the steamer Maria at this place, on account of the alleged infraction of the navigation laws, the complaint having been made by the Collector. It is supposed that she will be shortly released, on giving bonds. It is a trifle curious that she should have been allowed to clear from Victoria, to enter the port at Astoria, and run for so many months upon the Columbia and Willamette rivers, without the discovery of this infraction, or if discovered, that no action has been had till now. However, we suppose it is all right, or will be made so.

LITHOGRAPHIC VIEW OF PORTLAND.—A fine lithographic view of this city has been laid upon our table by Mr. A. Budd C. Smith, agent of the work. It was drawn by G. T. Brown, and lithographed by C. C. Kuchel, of San Francisco. The view is surrounded by many beautiful residences and the principal business houses of the city. The work speaks for itself. Give Mr. Smith a call at Richardson's auction rooms, and procure one.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The Circuit Court is still in session, and yesterday commenced a trial of a case in chancery, which involves the title to the lot on the levee, upon which Col. Chapman has recently erected his store and wharf. From the look of the papers, it is safe to conclude that it is a matter in regard to which much has been written and much more will be said before Saturday night.

GOOD CIDER.—Mr. W. P. Watson, living a few miles from the city, presented us with a pitcher of sweet cider the other day, which for flavor cannot be excelled in Oregon. Mr. W. is very successful as a fruit grower, and his orchard contains some of the finest varieties of fruit that can be had on the coast.

PAYMENT OF TROOPS.—The joint resolution of Congress authorising an additional issue of $100,000,000 in Treasury Notes, for the purpose of providing for the payment of arrears due to the army and navy, became a law recently, by receiving the signature of the President. The Secretary of the Treasury at once placed to the credit of paymasters an aggregate amount of over $24,000,000—nearly enough to pay the whole army of the United States. The largest sum—over $7,000,000—is assigned to the chief paymaster at Louisville, Ky., for paying the army of the Cumberland. The next largest—over $3,500,000—is assigned to the chief paymaster at St. Louis for paying the troops in that Department. The list contains the names of George H. Ringgold, at San Francisco, $300,000; Hiram Leonard, San Francisco, $370,000; and T. M. Winston, at Vancouver, Washington Territory, $50,000. Many regiments in the service have not received a cent of pay for six and even eight months. Great dissatisfaction has been the result, and very many of the desertions that have been so frequent in the army, are attributed with good reason to that cause.

Nothing improves a man's appearance like good, well-fitting garments. Heuston, Hastings & Co. found this out long since, or they would not sell the amount of goods passing over their counters. They have the best Clothing Store and finest stock of goods in California, and, what is of more consequence to them, are doing the best outfitting trade in San Francisco.

VOTE OF THANKS.—At a Regular Meeting of Columbian Engine Company No. 3, held on Tuesday evening, March [illegible], the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Company be tendered to Mr. [illegible] KELLY for the faithful and able discharge of the duties of Secretary of the Company for the past year.

Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to have these [illegible] published in the city papers.

JOHN S. E. JEWETT, Sec'y.

Willamettes No. 1.—Regular Meeting at the Engine House this (Thursday) evening at 7 o'clock.

ALBERT G. WALLING, Sec'y.

Storage.—THE FIRE PROOF STONE WAREHOUSE, opposite Umatilla House, is the only building, "not made of wood," at the Dalles, where goods are taken on STORAGE. All other houses that take goods on storage are wooden buildings and in exposed parts of the town, liable to the risk of fire. The subscriber assures his patrons that his charges are but $1 50 per ton per month storage and although storage in wooden buildings is $1 00 per ton, yet the public cannot fail to perceive the advantages the subscriber possesses over other warehouses of this place.

Dalles, Jan 20, 1863 1m KASEY BIVEN.

White's Fever and Ague Drops—For the cure of AGUE, PANAMA FEVER, NEURALGIA and GENERAL DEBILITY.

This medicine has been used in private practice for many years with great success. Indeed, in no instance has it failed to effect a speedy cure in Ague especially, one bottle having been found sufficient in most cases and in none are more than two bottles required.

A great number of testimonials could be given to verify these statements, but the proprietor prefers relying upon the merits of the medicine alone. A cure is guaranteed in nine cases out of ten.

Prepared only by ROBERT WHITE, Chemist and Druggist, Main street, Placerville, and Broadway, Upper Placerville. For sale by all respectable Druggists throughout the State.

[illegible] the nervous, the dispirited, the melancholic, the dyspeptic and the invalid revive under its benign influence.

To the Ladies of California.

Dr Van Zandt's success with complaints of women, both in family and office practice, is owing to his correct views of the origin of all their maladies. Develope appetite, life and animation, dispel nervous headache, sinking at the stomach, wandering pains, wasting away of strength, extreme debility and lifelessness, hectic cough, sleeplessness, unpleasant dreams and that general depression of life's powers, which go to render her life a misery and death a boon. Dr Van Zandt, with his new method of exciting the Electro-Galvanic current, together with his remedial means which are adapted to the necessities of California, will assure you of a complete and radical recovery of all bodily and mental infirmities, and will restore you to usefulness, and spare you a blessing to your family and society.

All the world over

wherever disease exists, whether special to the soil and climate or common to all regions—epidemic or casual, acute or chronic, contagious or non-contagious—it is as necessary to restore the ELECTRO-GALVANIC equilibrium, especially in California, as it is to give food to the starving. This statement is based upon a series of facts extending through many years, and verified by hundreds of patients; so that no [illegible] of science, no rule of experience, no result of any well known cause, rests upon more sure and unassailable foundations than those which underlie the world-wide reputation of Electricity for the cure of all nervous states of the body, [illegible] and physical debility or [illegible] coughs, asthma, wandering pains of a rheumatic, gouty or neuralgic character, and all forms of disease, the result of a scrofulous or cachectic habit of body.

PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oils and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can truly sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases. If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, [illegible] will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea, [illegible] bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea [illegible] times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely and take a dose of it internally [illegible] and night; it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea [illegible] and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhoea, or a relaxed [illegible] of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea, and [illegible] soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely, and you will soon relieve pain and swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe the gum at the same time; it will stop the pain instantly.

'Smart Men at the Bay.—That inf rmation not in p sse sion [illegible] of Frisco is n t to be obtained at the most extensive institut ns of learning. What t [illegible] don t know, it is [illegible] sort f u in trying t learn. There is scarcely any difference. Each is 'sharp as lightning' and ab ut as smart as 'they make em.' The Bulletin ment ons the following instances:

Greenback Lesson.—Case 1st.—A San Francisco lawyer had ear ed a fee [illegible] from one of his clients and in due time sent in his bill for collection. To his utter ast n ishment his collector returned with $200 in greenbacks. He indignantly ordered the c l lector to "take that trash back t H[illegible] and tell him I make a present of it."

The collector obeyed orders and speedily returned to his principal, when the following colloquy occurred:

Lawyer—Did you present my compliments and the greenbacks to H——?

Collector—I did, sir.

Lawyer—What did H[illegible] say?

"Collector—He put the greenbacks in his pocket and said he was much obliged to you fo the present!

Case 2d.—A banker loaned $30 000 secured by mortgage, to a real estate owner, before any such annoyance as payment in greenbacks had been thought of. When the mortgage was about maturing the mortgagee informed the banker that he might expect payment in legal tenders. The banker, in a gruff manner responded: "I expected no better treatment from you. Do your meanest, but grant me one little favor. Don t bring any of your legal tender rags into this office. I'll not put you to the trouble of employing a broker. Just you bring me the amount of gold that you will have to pay for $30,000 in greenbacks, and I ll give you up your note and mortgage and good riddance to you."

So reasonable a request as this could not be objected to, and so the shame-faced mortgagee in due time presented the required amount t gold. The banker handed over the note and mortgage, received the gold and deposited it in his safe, and bade his late debtor good morning. The latter hesitated a little about going, and said something about having the mortgage released of record. "Oh, yes," said the banker, "we will have to employ a lawyer for that." He then named his own lawyer and the two proceeded to his office, when the banker made known his business something after the following manner: "Squire, there is a balance of several thousand dollars due me on a mortgage which you will find recorded with the county records, and you will oblige me by commencing a foreclosure suit at once."

It did not take the vanquished mortgagee much time to understand his position, but the only remedy was for him to pay the balance due on the mortgage in greenbacks. He never mentioned the circumstance afterwards.

A New Cassabianca.—A correspondent of the New York Times, giving an account, by a rebel prisoner, who participated in the affair of the capture of the Harriet Lane, at Galveston, relates the following:

Almost the first men struck down were the gallant Capt Wainwright and Lieut Lee, who both fought, the prisoner says, with a desperation and valor that no mortal could surpass. He saw them bleeding and prostrate upon the deck, still dealing death among their enemies. One young son of Capt Wainwright—only ten years old, just think of it!—stood at the cabin door, a revolver in each hand, and never ceased firing until he had expended every shot. One of his poor little hands was disabled by a ball, shattering his four fingers, and then his infantine soul gave way, he burst into tears and cried, "Do you want to kill me?" Darling young hero; may his country never forget him! Where is the Hemans to wed his name t [illegible] verse like another Cassabianca? Philanthropists whose hearts are yearning f [illegible] to [illegible] here is a noble orphan boy on wh m to lavish your care. He is now a prisoner in the hands of the enemy.

General Scott Passing Away.—We learn, from authority we have no reas n to d ubt, that the honored old veteran who so long and so well commanded the armies of the United States, is probably passing the last days of his life. He is confined to his room at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, decrepid and entirely helpless, and—sad to say—his mind is at last breaking down under the weight of years and troubles. Of the latter, the condition of the country he has so loved and so well served no doubt forms a sad part, and the recent decease of his wife is said to have produced a marked effect upon him, and still further hastened the coming decay. Upwards of eighty years have, of course, produced physical decline without aid from adventitious circumstances, but early exposures and injuries have no doubt now [illegible] tell in racking pains and diseases, and he has never been quite the same man in health and strength since the breaking of his shoulder blade by a fall in 1853, that for many months materially crippled him. Nature, which has endured much, and which with him seemed at one time almost inexhaustible in resources, gives way at last, and the veteran becomes simply a weak old man, standing on the verge of the grave, and soon to be common dust, though dust ever honored.—New York Atlas

Whisky.—The Richmond Whig bewails the scarcity of good liquors. It says: The vilest whisky, which before the war a gentleman would not give to his negroes, is now eagerly sought after and bought at from $25 to $30 a gallon. French brandy is worth from $40 to $50. Apple brandy is now the best and cheapest liquor to be had in the market, but even that has within the past two days advanced as many dollars. We quote it to day at $20 a gallon.

Gen Burnside.—The romantic story about Gen Burnside's being a tailor s apprentice and receiving his appointment as a West Point Cadet from Secretary Caleb Smith, then a member of Congress from Indiana, is a canard made out of the whole cloth. Burnside s father was a wealthy and influential man; the son never mended breeches for a living, but assisted his father in the clerk s office of [illegible] county, Indiana, and the cadetship was secured through Oliver H Smith, then member of Congress from that district.

Dutchmen cannot live without sour krout. A New Brunswicker asked a German farmer if he had any for sale. "No," said he, "we only made sevendeen parrels dis year for sickness."

Proclamation by the Governor

Executive Office, Portland, Oregon, January [illegible] 186[illegible]

By the President [illegible] the [illegible] through Brigadier General George Wright [illegible] the Department [illegible] and Brig [illegible] I am [illegible] requested [illegible] to complete the [illegible] Regiment of Cavalry Oregon Volunteers. They will be needed the coming Spring on the frontiers of this State and Washington Territory and for an expedition against the Snake Indians who have [illegible] been most [illegible] engaged [illegible] bing emigrants and [illegible] izens. I cannot doubt that the citizens of Oregon who have always promptly responded to my demand for their military services will in like manner respond to this call, thereby showing their loyalty to the Government and aiding in chastising marauding bands of Indians which infest our frontiers.

The enlisted men when mounted will be supplied with horses by the United States, it being understood that they will be mounted or not, as shall be deemed advisable by the Government.

Propositions to raise a whole company which will furnish their own horses and horse equipments may be entertained. The men are in such cases entitled to forty cents a day for the use and risk of their horses and horse equipments.

Each company will consist of one hundred enlisted men, and when mustered into the service of the United States to serve for three years, unless sooner discharged.

Recruiting offices will be immediately opened at Portland, Dalles City and perhaps at other places. By the Governor

ADDISON C. GIBBS

Cyrus A Reed, Adjutant General.
